

Three Blind Mice is the third in the trilogy of the Super Selector™ Scratchcards from the curious curators of instant win entertainment at Black Pudding Games.

Taking on the role of Patty O'Cake (the feisty spouse of Bun In The Oven's Pat O'Cake) you are The Verminator tasked with hunting down the squeaky blinders wreaking havoc in Pat's bakery. Round up three matching mice behind the nine plates – ringleaders stained with the same colour icing they've been feasting on – and you'll bag a tasty bounty.

Better yet, the fewer shots you fire to complete your mission the bigger the prize you'll pocket. But stay alert soldier... should you fail to find your quarry, these rogue rodents will escape to the future simultaneously making your hopes of cleaning up history!
